is in hopes of getting near the leaders by downing the McAlker boys in all of the games. The Browns are down near the bottom of the list in the American League, but by building courage can still make a good showing.

The weather was fine for the contest, and a good portion of the baseball public

SENATE EXPECTS REPORT ON MONDAY

WASHINGTON, July 12.—The Senate was in session only fifteen minutes today and adjourned without transacting any business. It was agreed not to meet again until Monday.

Friday's session was the last of the Senate's summer recess. The Senate will convene again on Monday, July 13, at 10 a. m.

The Senate will then begin its consideration of the report of the committee on the subject of the proposed amendment to the constitution, which was passed by the House on June 10, 1911. The committee's report was made public on June 11, and the Senate has since then been in session only once, on June 12, when it adjourned without transacting any business.
